Evoca Group achieves EcoVadis Platinum rating

Evoca Group is pleased to announce attaining the prestigious Platinum rating by EcoVadis, with an overall score of 83 out of 100. This places Evoca in the top 1% of companies working in the machinery sector globally. Our performance in key areas such as Environmental Management and Labour & Human Rights (both scoring 90 out of 100), as well as Sustainable Procurement (80 out of 100), highlights our strong commitment to continuous responsible and ethical business practices.

“Our Platinum rating is a quantum leap forward from our Bronze rating earned earlier this year and a testimonial on how we advance Sustainability at Evoca.” says Giusi Bonini, Chief Sustainability Officer. “This outstanding achievements clearly demonstrates our drive to embed sustainability into every part of our business”. In fact, Evoca has introduced a series of initiatives to accelerate sustainable innovation into new product development, environmental conservation, ethical standards, and social responsibility.

Our achievement reflects the commitment and passion of our people and highlights our ongoing efforts to enhance sustainability and promote transparency across all areas of our operations.
